

French Inquiry Newsletter

Tell me who you are

During this quarter we will broaden our competences and skills in communication. We will learn how to present oneself with new tools. We are learning to give personal informations, to speak about its passions and dreams. We are going to study dialogues of presentation with questions and answers about personal information. We are going to learn the places of the city and the professions.

We are going to present some famous French people

We are also learning how to ask for the time and to give the time

Essential questions

How to present oneself ?

Who are the famous French people?

